In the Semi-Centennial celebration in 1907 the townspeople taking part in the activities said, "Incidentally, everybody had a good time so it was a great success; and that is all which can be expected of the next celebration; even though they should sail over old Rochester town in an airship or explore the bottom of Buzzards Bay by submarine vessel"

They predicted something else too. That as long as there are people living here on this fine harbor that they would enjoy sailing over its waters in a sailboat. There is something alive about a sailboat. Sailing gives us peace and it gives us thrills in this day of the jet airplane. What would they have thought about a man made satellite circling the earth in 1907? Wonders that we can't dream about will come in the next 50 years but we are willing to bet the sailboat will still be around.

The beauty on our cover is named the "Solo" and is the first of its class. Built on Mattapoisett Neck by Allan H. Vaitses, the first of the acorn class was delivered this September to Dr. Henry Gilbert of Peases Point. The boat is modeled along the lines of the Herreshoff 15 footer with the same easy handling and fast sailing. The new class is intended to bring a new sailing pleasure to Buzzards Bay in particular. The boat is fast for exciting racing and yet is comfortable and dry for day sailing.

The ACORN is 21 feet overall...15'8" at W.L. beam 5'8"...Displacement 1100 lbs...Sail area 153'..Bronze fastenings..mahogany planking on a white oak frame...lead ballast keel... hollow mast...stainless steel wire rigging..

there is Styrofoam Flotation under the decks to prevent sinking in case the boat were capsized. Sails on this boat were made by the E. W. Smith Co. of New Bedford, Mass.

This is a new business in Mattapoisett at a time when Mattapoisett is very interested in new industry. Mr. Vaitses has taken the oldest of the town skills, shipbuilding, and created his own boat, in his own shop, which he recently completed working alone.

INSPECTION BY GRAND LODGE HELD IN MARION

An inspection by the deputies of the Grand Lodge was held at the Thursday meeting of the Alcyon Chapter of Marion, Mass. October 13th, Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Edith E. Allingham, Deputy Grand Matron, of North Easton, and Mrs. Irene N. Earle, Deputy Grand Marshal, of South Easton, were the Grand Lodge officers officiating.

A 5 o'clock business meeting was followed by a supper, chairman committee being Doris Marshall and Leon Turner, Past Matrons and Patron, was held in the banquet hall. Lovely table decorations of arrangements of fresh fruits, flowers and candles gave the Fall motif. Favors for the occasion were horns of plenty.

Presiding officers were Mrs. Beatrice M. Dott and Mr. Frank L. Russell, Worthy Matron and Patron, and when the lodge reconvened at 8 P. M. candidates were received. Mrs. Maureen Small, Mr. Harold Small, Richard Bower and Arthur Thompson received the degree of the order, and a reception immediately followed.

Compliments on the records and the work were expressed by the Grand officers.

The soloist for the evening was Mrs. Bessie Rattray.

ROAD OUT OF CRESCENT BEACH PLANNED

Thoughts are coming to a head to plan a road out of Crescent Beach. Naturally the plan is to take care of emergencies, but those of us who walked to school in the good old days, used to cut through from Route 6 by Will Hoyt's. It's a good thought however, and will be a nice convenience to everyone as well as a much needed emergency exit.

Our Marion cover of October 6, 1955 was the home of Richard Watson Gilder and is now known as Gilder Lodge. On Pine Street in Marion is a building rich in historical interest which Mr. Gilder also owned. This stone building was built in 1820 as an oil refinery and was later used to manufacture salt from the sea. The pines surrounding the building furnished the raw material for the next use which was the manufacture of charcoal. In 1883 a huge stone fireplace was designed and built by Capt. "Tip" Ryder and "Old Man" Vales and the building was converted into a studio, used by Richard W. Gilder, Richard Harding Davis and Mrs. Gilder to inspire their writing and painting.

President Grover Cleveland and his bride, Mrs. Cleveland, came to Marion on their honeymoon and they spent much time at the studio where the president started his first inaugural address. The building, now called The Old Stone Studio, retains all of its original charm as a coffee shop. Mrs. Edith Hudson is hostess.

Mr. Benjamin Waters, Mrs. Hudson's father, is one of Marion's most remarkable citizens. At the age of 93 he is more active than many men of half that age. He has lived much of Marion's history personally and can tell you in detail of the history of the Stone Studio and the famous people that have enjoyed it. You will find Mr. Waters a busy man. His activities include painting, shingling at Gilder Lodge.

SOME THOUGHTS OF MINE
"Happy Thoughts"
by Murray R. Tuttle

Work and play each day is fine for one and all
It sort of helps us humans and keeps us on the ball.
We haven't time for trouble, but always we must smile
If we want to live in happiness and make our lives worthwhile.

The man who weeps must hide his face
Or someone else will take his place.
We haven't time to live in sorrow
Though trouble we have, none need we borrow.

The sun comes up to brighten the day
And helps to drive our troubles away.
It brings to light within our mind
The beauties of life which are Divine.

With happy thoughts each day we start.
They'll keep a song within our heart.
And as the day comes to an end
There'll be no broken hearts to mend.

WELL GROOMED YOUNG GOAT MEETS THE PRESS

This week on a routine run we met Chico. He is a beautiful white goat, the property of Jean Snyder of Holmes Street, Marion, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder. There, in the front yard of the their home, playing with its mistress like a puppy, was the beautiful well groomed animal. A few inquiries brought out the fact that Jean is sort of a natural born animal trainer. She has a great dane, a hunster, and a bird besides Chico. She has trained her beagle pup to climb a ladder and she loves all animals and they seem to all love her. She has a charm with not only her own but the neighbors' pets and in times past has escorted at least one neighbor's dog out of school and church where he was not welcome. Many Marion folks and children will remember her through Burro rides at a favorite shopping spot on Holmes Street where she helped to keep the children happy with the rides.
